North West Glasgow Directory

This directory gives information about third sector organisations and projects working with children, young people and families in the North West of Glasgow. It is a work in progress and more organisations will be added.

May 2018
The Everyone’s Children project was set up to support and promote third sector organisations in Glasgow that provide services to children, young people and families. The project is funded by the Scottish Government and works in partnership with statutory partners and the third sector.

It aims to:

• Develop and support the local third sector capacity to deliver wellbeing outcomes.
• Ensure third sector contributions to Children’s Services are valued and strengthened
• Share learning and best practice through training and events.

The Everyone’s Children project provides a practical range of support to ensure that the third sector contribution is effectively integrated into planning of services for children and families. The project has helped to raise awareness of GIRFEC, map the contribution of the third sector in Glasgow, share learning, and support organisations through capacity building work.

The Children, Young People and Families Citywide Forum provides a strong and co-ordinated voice to partner agencies that influence Children’s Services in Glasgow.

The Forum aims to:

• consult, agree and support representation on behalf of the sector on priority issues.
• actively represent forum membership in city wide multi-agency planning
• provide guidance and support to the Third Sector.
• gather and co-ordinate views on behalf of the Forum.
• promote good practice through shared learning.

Membership

The Forum is open to all third sector organisations that provide services to Children, Young People and Families in Glasgow. There is no membership fee.

The North West Children and Families Network (previously NW Wellbeing Network) is a forum for third sector organisations providing services to children, young people and families. We have around 100 members from a wide range of organisations including early years, nurseries, out of school services, family support, dance and sports clubs, community centres and carers support. The purpose of the network is to:

Increase awareness of the range of third sector children, young people and families organisations in the NW

Promote recognition of the value of the role of voluntary organisations and maximise their impact

Support third sector organisations and share knowledge and best practice

Ensure links with other relevant structures including Childrens’ Services, Community Planning, Thriving Places, NW Voluntary Sector Networks

The network has a steering group and sends third sector representatives to Children’s Services Locality Planning. There are quarterly open meetings to discuss issues, share knowledge and best practice.

A&M Scotland is a registered SCIO based in Glasgow that delivers programmes of diversionary activity to young people from areas of high social deprivation. Diversionary activities take the form of sports, physical activity, group-work, volunteering, employability and personal development sessions. We improve young people’s physical and mental health and well-being, confidence and self-esteem, aspirations, personal responsibility and life chances by engaging them in weekly, structured, positive activities that are delivered by role models (experienced and trained youth workers/coaches).

We currently work across 30 different communities in Glasgow, utilising 40 venues on 6 evenings per week. We work with up to 1500 young people each week and have around 2000 individuals registered to take part in our activities.

Action for Children Fostering Scotland are looking for people who want to make a difference to a young person’s life by offering a safe and loving family environment as a foster carer.

Action for Children Fostering Scotland promise to be there every step of the way – from 24-hour support, to training and you will get regular paid breaks to recharge your batteries.

It’s often the little things that make the difference for young people. Like someone to guide and care when things go right or wrong, someone who knows when it’s their birthday, and celebrates it. 95% of children fostered expressed that they were in a much better place.

Becoming a foster carer is a big decision – but life changing for you and the young people we support. If you’re ready to take that step to become a foster carer or are just at the start of the journey and want some more information, please get in touch.

To foster it’s essential that you have a spare room available.

Action for Children Employability Service

Action for Children is a large Children's Charity. Our Employability Services cluster supports young people aged 16-24 years old into employment, training or volunteering across the central belt.

We believe all young people should be given the chance to reach their full potential.

We aim to help young people explore their abilities. Our education services show them the possibilities and potential they have.

Our employment and training services give young people the chance to choose which route in life suits them best. We do this through:

- Offering work tasters, placements, skills and job seeking workshops through our Employability Programme;

- Providing internship opportunities supported by the Future Jobs Fund;

- Giving young people learning and employment opportunities through our Youth Work Apprenticeships.

Action for Children Side Step Intervention Programme
Side Step is an early intervention and diversion service delivered by Action for Children. It is aimed at 12-16 year olds who are at risk of becoming significantly involved in serious criminal activity.

The service operates from a base in Govan; however, project staff work with the young people in their own localities using local community resources. There is a large element of motivational work, supporting young people to recognise that they have opportunities in front of them other than a life of crime.

Barnardo's Children’s Inclusion Partnership (CHIP)
CHIP is a collaboration between Barnardo's Scotland and Stepping Stones for Families. The project has been working in Possilpark for 20 years. During that time the team has established positive working relationships with countless children, young people and families and with many groups in the local community. It encourages individuals and families to participate in community development activities, ensuring their voice is heard in the decision making process.

Over the years the charity has taken part in a number of projects, with a focus on supporting children, young people and families in Possilpark to make a positive difference to their community. This has involved wildflower and bulb planting, biodiversity work and a range of activities that bring people of all generations together. These have included bat walks, storytelling, carol singing, sports days and community dog shows.

Cranhill Development Trust

Our core activity is to provide person-centred, responsive support services which are inclusive and are not age or gender specific. We focus on a community development and regeneration approach that builds and increases capacity within the community.

We do this by providing support which encourages and nurtures empowerment. In the same way, we promote resilience through active participation in the planning, design, development, delivery and evaluation of services.

By providing a range of community based support activities and services, we aim to increase self-esteem and opportunity in an area of multiple deprivation. These services include working with families and individuals, providing information and advice (e.g. Scottish Refugee Council outreach for refugees), health services (e.g. yoga, cycling), education services (e.g. ESOL classes), leisure opportunities, a community cafe and nearly new shop.

We do this as much as possible in partnership with other agencies and with the quality assistance of experienced volunteers.

The Drumchapel Children's Rights Project offers independent advocacy to children and young people aged between 5 and 18 in the West of Glasgow. An Advocate is someone who speaks on your behalf, putting your views and opinions forward when, for whatever reason, you feel unable to do so yourself. At CRP, our advocates are trained and experienced in working specifically with children and young people.

An advocate is there to help. They will provide up to date information to help you make decisions, can refer you to various services, can go with you to meetings/panels/appointments and help explain your issues/concerns. Any information you share with your advocate is confidential, and would only be shared with your permission, or if it was putting you or others at risk.

Glasgow Women’s Library is the only Accredited Museum in the UK dedicated to women’s lives, histories and achievements, with a lending library, archive collections and innovative programmes of public events & learning opportunities.

Glasgow Women’s Library aims to:

Advance the education of the general public by increasing the knowledge and understanding of women’s history, lives and achievements.

Provide information on a range of women’s and gender equality issues.

Enable women, particularly the most vulnerable and excluded in society, to access the information, resources and services they need to make positive life choices.

Break down barriers to learning and participation for women so that they become fully active citizens, develop skills and knowledge, engender self-confidence and equip themselves to pass on their experience to benefit their families and broader communities.

Be a catalyst for change by taking a lead role in redressing the neglect of women’s historical and cultural contributions to Scottish society.

Pioneer new ideas of, and approaches to, culture and heritage that bring together people from the most diverse backgrounds.

Invest in women’s social, cultural and creative capital to the benefit of our nation.

Part of Whiteinch Transformation and based in the West of Glasgow, Healing for the Heart exists to help people and organisations to improve their emotional health.

At Healing for the Heart we are passionate about helping people to develop a positive attitude to mental and emotional health by offering a holistic approach to therapy. We currently offer counselling, therapy and spiritual healing. In Autumn 2018 we expect to also be able to offer massage therapy.

As well as 1:1 work, we also offer training for individuals and organisations who are looking to address issues around mental and emotional health - particularly those looking to address issues around trauma and the impact of ACE's. Like our 1:1 services, we tailor make our training around the needs of the client.

Home-Start Glasgow North works to help families with young children who are facing challenging circumstances. We support families in North Glasgow who have at least one child under 5, or are expecting a baby.

We train parent volunteers to offer weekly support visits to families in their own homes and communities. We also offer group support and a range of other activities. Our ultimate aim is to see families become stronger, more resilient, more confident and more independent, and for parents to be equipped and empowered to give their children the best possible start in life.

The main focus of Home-Start is to offer volunteer support to families in their own homes and is tailored to the needs of each family. Our volunteers are friendly and professional, offering effective and non-judgemental support. The relationship between the Home-Start volunteer and the family is established by choice. A lot of thought and care goes into matching each family with the right volunteer for them.

As well as home-visiting, we hold a weekly Family Group with a varied programme of activities and offer Video Interaction Guidance on a one-to-one basis for individual families. Referrals (including self-referrals) can be made by contacting us at:

The Lilias Graham Trust is a residential facility that provides parenting capacity assessments to all Scotland-wide social work departments for parents whose children are at risk of being accommodated. The LGT is a wrap-around service; we offer a psychiatrist, counselling psychologist, play therapist, health consultant, social work consultant and an educational psychologist. Parents are assisted within the centre to help them meet the needs of their own child. We use the Kate Cairns Five to Thrive approach ‘relax, cuddle, play, respond and talk’. All these five things will assist the baby in developing into a more confident child then eventually an adult.

From our bases in Edinburgh and Glasgow, Move On works with vulnerable young people and those affected by homelessness. We offer a range of services providing advice, training, guidance and support enabling vulnerable young people and those affected by homelessness to unlock their potential and achieve a range of positive outcomes. These positive outcomes include; securing or progressing towards a job and further education, accessing and sustaining a home, building confidence, growing support networks and increasing life skills.

As an SQA approved centre, we provide a range of SQA accredited qualifications within the local community and within our employability training programmes which deliver stages 1 to 3 in the Strategic Skills Pipeline.

Schools Programmes
We tailor our programme structure and content to meet the needs of both our customers and the young people attending. We can:

- Deliver half-day, one-off workshops on specific issues
- Deliver sessions as part of the school curriculum; i.e. over a double period.
- Run longer programmes – part-time or full-time – over a number of weeks.
- Deliver our services in schools, or from our own premises.

Our mentoring service supports young people aged between 14 and 25. The service aims to improve outcomes for vulnerable young people such as increased self-esteem and social confidence, extended social networks and improved employability. The mentors also encourage the young people to focus on employment, training and education opportunities, identifying aspirations, finding out about different options and accessing suitable opportunities. These may include returning to school and increasing attendance, securing employment, applying to and attending college, accessing an apprenticeship etc. One of the key benefits the mentoring relationship offers young people is a reliable, positive relationship within agreed boundaries.
National Deaf Children’s Society
We provide support and events for deaf children and their families. Children and Family Support Officers can provide positive support and information on a wide range of issues/things which families with deaf children will need to know more about – education, benefits, technology and health. NDCS also works with a network of approximately 115 local deaf children’s societies all over the UK, which exist for the express purpose of giving support to families of deaf children.

Richmond's Hope, Glasgow is a charity that supports children and young people from Glasgow and the surrounding areas who have been bereaved.

We provide children with a safe place to work out their grief through verbal and non-verbal ways, e.g. art and therapeutic play and activities. As each child's grief is different, we provide individual support for children aged 4-18 years on a weekly basis for 40 minutes per session, with children attending at the same time each week for an average of 12 weeks.

We also offer telephone support and advice, presentations to statutory and non-statutory organisations, bespoke training, family support away days and the opportunity for children we have supported to join a peer support group. Referrals are taken over the telephone and all we ask is that the person with parental responsibilities gives consent for the referral to be made, that the child/young person is aware of the referral and that they know how the person died in an age related way.

Scottish Childminding Association
Childminders offer a flexible and unique service as they look after small groups of children in a domestic setting. A childminding service can often extend to both evenings and weekends. Being cared for by a childminder gives children the opportunity to learn from real-life experiences. Everyday activities, like going to the shops, involvement in school pick-ups, family meal times and visits to the park all teach children valuable life skills.

The Scottish Childminding Association (SCMA) is Scotland’s only charity dedicated to childminding. Over 82% of childminders in Scotland are our members and we are here to support them through the registration process and help them to build strong foundations for their childminding business. Our tailor-made learning programmes (including e-Learning programmes), Helpline, business aids and publications were all created with childminders in mind. We are the one-stop-shop for all things childminding!

Yoker Out of School Care provides an essential service for families within the local area. Staff know the families very well and children are cared for in a relaxed and responsive environment. The service operates from Yoker Resource Centre, Monday to Friday during the following times:

- 8 to 8.45am and from 3 to 6pm during school term time
- 11.45am to 6pm between August and October to accommodate Primary 1 children
- 8am to 6pm during school holidays - active school holiday programme

The crèche provides care for 1-5 year olds and staff support children’s transition to primary school. Once at school, children are taken, and collected, from local schools by mini-bus. The Care Inspectorate commended the service is for being child centred and providing very good opportunities for children to actively participate in planning and evaluating activities.

Young Movers (YoMo) are a youth empowerment charity for the North East and North West of Glasgow. We offer volunteering opportunities for young people ages 12-25 years.

We run a project called YouthBank which is an innovative grant-making initiative run by young people for young people. Our 'Young Grant Makers' develop valuable skills, knowledge and confidence while improving their community for the benefit of others. We also run multiple peer education programmes - peer education is the teaching or sharing of information to young people by young people.

YoMo offers young people opportunities to develop workshops and information sessions around the issues that affect them and share this information with their peers. So far our peer educators have developed workshops in Anti-Bullying, Violence Against Women, Anti-Sectarianism and Health and Wellbeing.

YWCA Scotland, The Young Women’s Movement, is part of a worldwide movement of women leading change. We are based in Edinburgh and have a centre in Glasgow. We reach out to women, particularly girls and young women, across Scotland.

Our mission is to inspire girls, young women and women to achieve their potential through developing their skills, self confidence and leadership and through challenging the barriers they face in society, by creating safe spaces for them to meet together in groups and clubs, activities and conversations. We do this in our own centres, schools, in partnership with others, and through social media.

We work in partnership with local colleges to deliver a wide range of formal accredited courses in a community based setting in our learning centre in East Glasgow.

Across Glasgow we deliver:

YGirls and Gen Up programmes designed to raise the aspirations and achievements of girls and young women of primary and secondary school age.

Empowering Pathways for Women a programme designed to strengthen women’s choices and participation in all aspects of their lives.
