Introduction

This directory lists potential grant funding opportunities available to voluntary organisations in Glasgow for climate-related or environmental activities. While we have included all the funding opportunities we're aware of, this is not intended to be a comprehensive directory. If you know of any other potential sources of funding for similar projects in Glasgow, please let us know so we can include them here!

GCVS Climate Friendly Practice Support Service

Our climate change coordinators can help your organisation to take climate friendly action. We support anyone working in the sector to plan their decarbonization efforts, other environmentally helpful activity, and adaptation strategies. We can help guide you towards a strategy for your group, especially if you are just starting towards carbon neutrality or beginning to set up a climate policy.

Through our mailing list, we also highlight relevant workshops, events, and other opportunities in and around Glasgow. We support the great climate work already going on and work to encourage and empower new initiatives.

GCVS Funding Support Service

GCVS provides a range of fundraising resources, training sessions, and a one-to-one advice service completely free of charge for voluntary groups, charities, or community organisations in Glasgow. You can find more information from our website: <https://www.gcvs.org.uk/support-for-organisations/funding-and-fundraising/>

There is huge competition for grant funding. On average, only one in five applications is successful. Therefore, in order to secure sufficient funding, you might need to apply to several different funders at the same time. Preparation is key. Research the funding priorities of potential funders, check their eligibility criteria and read their guidelines carefully.

However, grant funding is only one way of finding income for your work. Your fundraising plan should include a range of methods so you're not too dependent on one type. If you'd like more information, please get in touch – we're happy to help.
